PRESIDENT'S NOTES

By Carol Jean Braun

Greetings to all fellow alumni. Signs of spring are everywhere: eighty new calves and counting. This may not translate to spring for most alumni but in southern Indiana there is not a more glorious sight.

The annual AAPD meeting will be in San Francisco. Arrangements for the IUPDAA hospitality suite are nearing completion. Leslie Tanimura and her committee have been busy selecting the suite location and organizing activities. We are very fortunate that Leslie will be able to provide her local expertise for our short visit to San Francisco. Leslie and Karen Deery have met with hotel management to arrange for alumni to be assigned to rooms in close proximity to the suite. A schedule of suite dates and events will be included in the newsletter. Our alumni need to continue to support efforts to defray the cost of the suite and activities. Contributions will allow IU alumni to enjoy the camaraderie of friends and colleagues in a great setting. Our hosts for the hospitality suite will again be the pediatric dental residents. They will be contacting you for donations for the suite and raffle. Please respond generously. The adopt-a-resident program organized by Bill Keaty has been very successful. This program provides funding for the residents to attend the AAPD and other national level meetings.

While plans for the San Francisco meeting are being finalized, the arrangements for the 2005 biennial meeting continue. I hope that alumni, both recent and “not so recent” will mark their calendars to attend.

Please join me in expressing thanks to our executive secretary, Karen Deery. She keeps us all on task and provides us with seemingly effortless and well-planned events. She will not be joining us in San Francisco due to family obligations.

The McDonald Fund continues to provide resources necessary to maintain an incomparable environment for pediatric dental education. Please contribute to the fund in support of our residents and alumni activities.

I hope to see everyone in San Francisco.

Mark Your Calendar
for the 2004 AAPD Conference in San Francisco.

Our Alumni Association will have a suite in the San Francisco Downtown Marriott, 55 Fourth Street. The suite will be open on May 27, 28, 29, and 30. Plan on the usual fun, food, beverages, and raffle.

It is indeed my pleasure to announce that, following a national search and subject to I.U. Board of Trustees approval, Dr. Jeffrey A. He has been Director of the Advanced Education Program in Pediatric Dentistry since 1998.

We are most fortunate to have someone of Dr. Dean’s caliber and commitment on our faculty and especially to have him accept this important position.

Please join me and all of our other colleagues and friends in congratulating and thanking Dr. Dean on his new assignment.

Thank you very much.

Ocean Front Home for 1 Week

Phil and Laura Miller are donating their ocean front home for our silent auction during the AAPD meeting in San Francisco. The winner should schedule their September through May week with Phil and Laura. Their Fripp Island, South Carolina home has over 4200 square feet, 5 bedrooms, and 5 baths including 4 master suites each with a whirlpool tub and ocean view. The Miller’s home has a covered deck, can sleep 16, and has an elevator. This home is in a private resort with security. The island resort has 3 restaurants, 2 golf courses, a tennis center, numerous pools, and bike trails. Golf carts are a popular means of transportation on the island. RESIDENT LIFE

By Cody Must

It's hard to believe the next Newsletter is already here, but I suppose that will be the pattern for foreseeable future. Since the beginning of the year, we have welcomed former IU grad Dr. Swati Singh from sunny Arizona. After two years of private practice, she has decided to leave general dentistry, pack up her house and husband, move back to Indy and join us as the newest resident.

As for the rest of us, "Research" is the buzzword heard from the McClure Room to the Bathroom and from the ER to the OR. Whether it involves rat mandibles, infant formula, glass ionomers, maternal diabetes, strep mutans or lip bumpers, the second years are knuckle-deep in collecting or analyzing data, meeting deadlines, and dark coffee.

The first years are busy as well having already been here almost 8 months. All are in full swing with research and clinic responsibilities, and they have even initiated a monthly Residents' Dinner to help unwind the regular stresses of resident life with good food and laughter. I suppose you could call it "training" for the AAPD conference in San Francisco.

Speaking of San Francisco, we are all excited for May to arrive. It will be a great time to meet colleagues from around the world and gather a glimpse of what life is like beyond residency.

We are looking forward to seeing you all there, and again, thank you for making our trip possible through your financial support and welcome invitation to join you. Until then, cheers!

1st years Anokhi Dalia, Mark Ellis, Hans Peterson with staff.

Our newest resident, Dr. Singh.
SAN FRANCISCO
By Leslie Tanimura

Start your diets now...the fantastic restaurants in San Francisco are unequivocal proof that the Left Coast will hold its own when pitted against the famed eateries of NYC! As I mentioned in the last newsletter, your visit to The City will be fun-filled and memorable...I love living in the Bay Area and hope you will find more than a few reasons why I have chosen to call it my home! For you techies and online planners...a fairly comprehensive list of area restaurants as well as listings of available reservations are available thru www.opentable.com. Another source is www.forfoodies.com. Baseball fans should check out www.sfgiants.com for tickets since the Giants will be playing at home from Wednesday thru Sunday. The San Francisco Convention and Visitors Bureau may be accessed via www.sfvisitor.org or by calling 415-974-6900.

As for a few of my tourist favorites...Saturday morning Farmers Market at the Ferry Building, Specialties (for coffee and pastries in the morning), Postrio (impeccable service) and Jardiniere (my favorite!) for dinner, SFMOMA cafe for people-watching, ditto for the bar at the W Hotel... and walking/running along the Embarcadero-Crissy Field. The nighttime tour of Alcatraz is a lot of fun and should be on your itinerary even if you've seen it during the day. Peet's coffee is the local brew from Berkeley and something that my business partner, Bob Harmon (Class of 69) and I absolutely love to start our day with. Be sure to sample See's candies too...I lugged pounds and pounds of their fabulous chocolates to Indiana when I was a resident and per Rick Troyer (Class of 92), there's nothing like a box of See's Nuts and Chews. I agree.

Lastly, please support our alumni association with raffle and auction donations. Your contributions, as well as ticket purchases, enable the alumni association to continue several well-loved Hoosier traditions. The Hoosier suite would not be possible without the generosity of our many alumni. Likewise, the feasibility of sending both classes of residents to the meeting would be severely compromised.

By the way, if you happen to see Bill Keaty at the meeting, please take a minute to thank him for the incredible amount of time he has devoted towards securing the residents' sponsorships and raffle/auction organization. Thanks for a great job, Bill!

I'm looking forward to seeing you in San Francisco!!! Have a safe and swift journey!

UPDATE ON ADOPT-A-RESIDENT PROGRAM
By Bill Keaty

Our adopt-a-resident program was hatched at our bi-annual meeting in June 2003. The program was created due to the increase in residents (we are now up to 12) and expensive venues such as New York and San Francisco. In addition, because of the poor performance of the stock market the McDonald fund was at its all time low.

Since its inception, we have had substantial interest with contributions equaling over $12,000. We sincerely thank those that have already contributed and we encourage you to join them. Full adoption is $800 (this is the cost to send a resident to the academy meeting) or you may partner with another alumnus for $400 each.

Contact Karen Deery for details at 866-267-3104. Adopt-a-resident contributions are tax deductible.

To date, the following people have donated a total of $12,900 to the Adopt A-Resident Program. A huge thank you!

WHERE ARE THEY GOING?

Congratulations to the residents who will be graduating in 2004. There are many plans in the works for our soon to be Indiana University pediatric dental graduates. We eagerly look forward to having them within the ranks of our alumni association. Who are they? Where are they going?

Dr. Leyla Abazari — Leyla did her undergraduate work at Cal Tech University, Pomona, California, graduating in 2002. She plans to go into private practice in California.

Dr. Mark Boone — Mark is a graduate of the University of Kentucky. After graduating from dental school in 1999, Mark served in the United States Navy. Mark will be stationed in Japan for 3 years after he graduates from the pediatric dental program.

Dr. Yaney Cohen — Since graduating from Indiana University School of Dentistry in 1998, Yaney has attended an advanced general dentistry program as well as serving in the United States Navy. Yaney has several exciting possibilities including settling in Arizona in private practice.

Dr. Tawanaw Lee — Tawanaw is a 2002 graduate of Meharry Medical College Dental School. She has accepted a two year commitment to the National Health Service Corps.

Dr. David "Cody" Mast — Cody is a 2002 graduate of Nova Southeastern University Dental School. He plans to go into private practice with his father in Bellevue, Washington. Cody is the Chief Resident.

Dr. Kimberly Pompalboon graduated from Indiana University School of Dentistry in 2001. She is currently considering practicing in Indiana.
Happy Holidays to fellow alumni. In review of 2004, the hospitality suite at the AAPD meeting in San Francisco was a tremendous success. Dr. Leslie Tanimura was a wonderful hostess for the suite and served as our personal local arrangements contact. The Sees candy was an incredible regional delight. With early planning for the suite, interested alumni could select rooms in the immediate suite area. This provided a greater buffer zone between our suite activities and other hotel patrons. We are planning to book adjacent rooms in Orlando. For 2005, our alumni have two great opportunities to socialize, renew friendships, and advance our professional education. In May, we will host a hospitality suite at the AAPD meeting in Orlando. In June, the biennial conference will be in Indianapolis at the University Place Hotel and Conference Center. Dr. Jenny Ison-Stigers is our program chair and has secured Dr. Paul Casamassimo as our McDonald Lecturer.

The AAPD meeting will be May 26-30, 2005. The suite will be on the 3rd floor of the Dolphin Hotel. Interested alumni should request that their room be in this area. Dr. Barry Burgess will coordinate suite activities. A raffle and auction financially supports the suite. Our generous alumni donate a variety of travel accommodations and collectible items. Please contact Karen Deery if you have an item or service to donate that has a value of $100 or more.

The Indiana University Pediatric Dentistry Alumni Association members continue to “Rise and Shine” in national, local, professional, education, and public service programs.

Dr. Jenny Ison-Stigers received the Merle C. Hunter Leadership Award at the annual meeting of the Academy in San Francisco. This award honors the memory of Merle C. Hunter, AAPD Executive Director from 1968-1986. The award is presented annually to the volunteer who has provided exemplary leadership service in the volunteer structure of the organization. The awards committee recognized Dr. Stigers’ many contributions including her appointment as chair of the Academy’s Council on Clinical Affairs. In the past, she served as Director of the University of Kentucky’s Mobile Dental Program. She also was the American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry’s representative to the ADA Specialty Review Panel on Dental Radiographs. She was elected to the Board of Humane Society of Southeast Missouri. She is currently Vice President of the Indiana University Pediatric Dentistry Alumni Association. She was involved in establishing the Missouri Academy of Pediatric Dentistry and represents Missouri for the Southwest Society of Pediatric Dentistry. Jenny previously served as Chief of Dental Services at Kosair Children’s Hospital in Louisville.

While the Olympic Games were going on in Athens, a small group of friends and colleagues gathered in Indianapolis to celebrate their own “world-class event.” David Avery, Donna Bungardner, Jim Weddell, and Jeff Dean posed with Ralph McDonald shortly after David and Jeff had presented him with his gold medal and laurel wreath for setting a new world record with the publication of the 8th Edition of Dentistry for the Child and Adolescent in February 2004.
2004 Graduating Residents and Our New Alumni: "The 2004 Hail and Farewell Luncheon"
by Jeff Dean

I am very pleased to announce the names of our newest members to the Indiana University Pediatric Dentistry Alumni Association. They are:

<table>
<tr>
<th>Leyla Abazari</th>
<th>Mark Boone</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Yanev Cohen</td>
<td>Tawana Lee</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>David &quot;Cody&quot; Mast</td>
<td>Kimberly Porapapiboon</td>
</tr>

There are two awards that we announce annually at our Hail and Farewell Luncheon. The first award is the Dick Baker Fellowship Award, which is given to the resident voted by his resident colleagues and the faculty as the individual that they enjoyed being around the most, the individual that picked up their spirits, the individual who helped them get through the difficult times of a residency program. The second award is the McDonald Scholar Award, which is based on academic achievement and research prowess, as well as taking into account ability to get along with colleagues, patients, staff, and parents. The first award is not always given because it takes a unique individual to be deserving of the award, and the second award has specific criteria that can eliminate graduating residents from eligibility for it, such as grade point averages. This year was unique in that it is one of the few times in the history of giving out these awards that both awards were given to the same individual, Dr. Mark Boone. We congratulate him on this significant accomplishment!

I’d like to also congratulate three of our residents who defended their research projects prior to leaving our program. They were Drs. Leyla Abazari, Tawana Lee, and Mark Boone. Indiana University School of Dentistry adopted a new provision this past year where a bound master thesis is not required to achieve your master’s degree. Student’s have the option of either doing a bound masters thesis or submitting their research for publication in a well-recognized refereed journal. While none of these candidates have yet to submit their research for publication, I am certain that this will occur soon, and as soon as it does, they will be awarded their MSD.

As part of our farewell celebration for our graduating residents, we invited Dr. Gerald Sampson to give a daylong presentation on June 25th to our residents on anterior and posterior cross-bites. As always, Gerry was well received, entertaining, knowledgeable, and well versed in the literature surrounding these topics. He is always regarded as a favorite by the residents when they have the opportunity to listen to him speak. Speaking of our graduate pediatric dentistry continuing education series, I would like to announce that Dr. Robert Primosch has consented to be our key-note speaker at our January 14, 2005 CE Series on pediatric pain control. These graduate pediatric dentistry CE Series opportunities are open to all alumni members and practicing pediatric dentists. Mark it on your calendar and plan to come back and visit with us.

Finally, I’d like to make everyone aware of Dr. Yanev Cohen’s receipt of third place in a table clinic awards presented by the American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry this past May 2004 at the San Francisco meeting. Way to go Yanev!

Thanks for your continued support and don’t ever hesitate to contact us if you have any comments or suggestions!

2005 Biennial Meeting
by Jenny Stigers

The Ralph E. McDonald lectureship at the 2005 Indiana University Pediatric Dentistry Alumni Association biennial meeting will be given by Dr. Paul Casamassimo from Ohio State University. Dr. Casamassimo agreed to present for us - "Medical advances in pediatric health care and their implications for dentistry". He indicated that this will address such topics as new drugs, anticancer therapies used for other conditions, childhood obesity, pregnancy, etc. and how these issues impact our practices. Dr. Casamassimo plans to develop a full day session just for IUPDAA and will share a more detailed outline as the content of the course evolves. Most of you are aware of the valuable roles he has played in our specialty, having served as President of the American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry and editor of our journal Pediatric Dentistry. I hope this topic and speaker will encourage attendance at our meeting.

We have reserved the Artsgarden for our Saturday night dinner. To learn more about this facility, visit http://www.indyarts.org/artsgarden.aspx

If you have not yet already done so, please call as soon as possible to reserve your hotel room. Karen Deery reserved a block of rooms for us at the University Place Hotel on the IUPUI campus. The toll-free number is (800) 627-2700.

Looking forward to seeing you in Indy!
Greetings from the resident room. There have been many happenings not only from the resident room, but outside the resident room as well. When you place twelve people from all walks of life into a room built for six, and only one “wonderful” painting to look at, we play our own game of survivor.

With every new issue of “Our Tree,” one of the major happenings is the farewell to the graduating residents, and halt to the incoming residents. I would like to take a moment to thank the graduating second years for their mentorship this past year. I know I personally was able to learn something from each of you that is helping me to develop my own philosophies. I wish each of you happiness and success in your lives and careers. The new incoming residents have been adjusting and adapting to resident life very gracefully.

They ask many of the same questions I asked, and I am sure you asked as new first years. How do I manage this patient restoratively and that patient behaviorally? What is the best technique to restore a tooth with a SSC, and how do I manage this emergency trauma? However, their learning curve is growing exponentially and many of them have already begun to answer these questions themselves.

The first years have also been adjusting to many new happenings in their personal lives. Michael Roseff has recently become a father to a beautiful little girl and Caroline Derrow is not far behind expecting her first child in November. Ryan Murphy has recently become engaged and Katie Rusnak and her husband now have to juggle two resident schedules to find time for each other, as he is an orthopedic resident. Parnaz Barnajian, who is from California, is adjusting to Midwestern life while our Navy resident, Angela Pinketon, is re-adjusting to civilian life.

As for the second years, everyone seems to be as busy as ever. When we are not seeing patients, doing a sedation, or in the OR, we are planning, traveling, or planning to travel. Anokhi Dalia and Jodi Strickley are both planning weddings. Swati Singh is preparing for the Indiana State Dental boards. Mark Ellis has been spending many hours behind the wheel traveling to Nashville to see his wife, who is doing a pediatric pharmacology residency. Hans Peterson and I are planning a “dreaded” trip to the pediatric dental convention in Las Vegas this coming November, where we hope to see some of you.

I guess that covers almost all of the happenings from the resident room. If any of you are ever in the area please stop by or give us a call. We can always use some advice or words of encouragement from the real world.

The biennial meeting will be June 16-17, 2005. This schedule will renew Indy race traditions of the IUPDAA, as the Formula One race is scheduled for that weekend. Contact Karen Deery about securing tickets. Be sure to make hotel reservations as soon as possible. The University Place Hotel and Conference Center is in the process of being purchased by the university and will undergo extensive renovations. Dr. Ison-Stigers will provide a more detailed update for the June meeting.

Dr. Chuck Poland is the IUPDAA representative to the IUUSD Alumni Board of Directors. This is a new position by the IUUSD Alumni Association. He welcomes your comments so that these organizations can coordinate their efforts in better serving both memberships.

At our board meeting in San Francisco, Dr. Jeff Dean addressed the issue of memorials for deceased alumni. Our goal is to honor alumni and create a fund that will exist in perpetuity. It was suggested a committee should help formulate proposals regarding memorials. Drs. Paul Walker, Dave Avery and Pam Lovejoy have agreed to serve.

As the calendar year closes, remember to support the McDonald Fund and Adopt-A-Resident program. The Adopt-A-Resident program supports travel to the AAPD meeting or other national dental meetings without withdrawing from the McDonald Fund. The McDonald Fund helps to maintain excellence in our post-graduate program.

Mark your calendars for Orlando and Indianapolis 2005!
Avery's Notes
IUPDAAA Hospitality and History

As you all know hosting a hospitality suite at the AAPD annual meetings is a long-standing tradition of our organization. Although many alumni groups host a one-evening reunion event, as far as I know, we are the only pediatric dentistry alumni group that provides a suite throughout the meeting for our members and friends to enjoy. I decided that it would be a fun project for me to write a brief historical account of this activity and I thought it might have some interest for all of you who read this newsletter. I also thought that such a report would be an interesting story for reminiscing by the members of my generation (and before) and an informational history lesson for the younger generation. My memory of how the suite activities began and how its organizational aspects have changed over the years is clear. For some strange reason, I have more difficulty remembering specific events that occurred in the suite! So I have consulted with quite a few other members for much of this information.

Our very first hospitality suite was organized and provided by Ron Eichel at the Atlanta meeting in 1970. Ron had graduated from our advanced program in 1969. It was coincidental that the AAP (later the AAPD) held their annual meeting in Atlanta the following year where Ron had just established his new office. Ron wanted to do something to reinforce his appreciation to the Indiana faculty for his specialty education and to host other graduates of Indiana’s program that were attending the meeting. It was his idea to rent a hotel room that could serve as a place for all of us to meet and visit. Thus the idea of a hospitality suite was born in 1970 as a result of Ron’s generous personal gesture. Ron wanted to see the idea perpetuated and an excerpt from the minutes of our newly formed organization’s first official business meeting in Indianapolis on May 28, 1971, states:

Ron Eichel brought up the idea of having the Organization help support an Indiana University Pedodontic Alumni Hospitality Room at each Annual American Academy of Pedodontics meeting: with the stipulation that a “kitty” also be established at each annual Academy meeting for contributions from those in attendance to pay their additional fair share of the support for such a project. This idea was unanimously accepted by the group, but the consensus was that no increase in the proposed amount of dues would be necessary. Our dues were established that day at $10.00 annually and there was some debate about whether it was more appropriate for the 1971 dues to be only $5.00 because it was already mid-year at that time (the $5 idea was rejected).

As the first elected Secretary-Treasurer of the group, I was responsible for retaining and organizing the suite. In those days the Academy met toward the end of August and our next two Academy meetings were in Dallas (1971) and Boston (1972). I stayed in the adjoining bedroom of our hospitality suite and I secured the revenue from the “kitty” and ensured that it was adequately supplied and cleaned daily. Paul Walker shared the room with me in 1972. He recalls making many “supply runs” to the nearby food and liquor stores to adequately maintain our “consumers,” comprised of many members and friends. As a new graduate that year, Paul also remembers being impressed by all the well-known members and other colleagues that he met while hosting the suite. The number of colleagues attending our suite and the friendliness and camaraderie in that environment also impressed him. He recalls sleeping very little during the 3 or 4-day event.

Our organization continued to flourish and we were able to begin providing some support for a few of our residents to attend the annual Academy meetings. Art Mourino was the first student to occupy the suite in 1973 in Beverly Hills. Art and his wife, Eleanor, did a fine job as our hosts. Paul Starkey was serving on the American Board of Pedodontics at that time and at the end of a hectic Board business meeting, Paul invited the Board members to come to the suite to unwind a little before dinner. Tom Lewis was president of the Board that year and he and a few others accepted Paul’s invitation. As they were walking into the suite, Tom stopped at the door and looked around in awe and admiration of the spirited interaction in the room. Dr. Lewis looked at Paul and exclaimed, “I don’t know what this is costing you but it is worth every penny!” By the way the bill for the suite that year was $324.94. Paul has often stated that our hospitality suite is extremely valuable as an ideal place to bring our non-IUPDAAA friends and colleagues for business or pleasure, just as it is for our members to enjoy.

Our Academy meetings first conflicted with the Memorial Holiday in 1975. Jeff Dean and I do not remember how the 500 race day raffles got started in the suite. Although Jeff has carried that tradition on for a number of years now, he doesn’t believe it was his idea originally. He finished our program in 1985 so he could not have been involved in the mid 70’s. My guess is that someone in our group started that tradition in 1975 or shortly thereafter. Does anyone out there remember? Let us know if you do.

By the mid-70’s or so, and due to your generosity, we were able to provide travel support for nearly all of our residents to attend the annual meeting so the responsibility for maintenance of the suite became more of a group effort regardless of who actually

In Memoriam:

Dr. Arthur I. Klein passed away Saturday, April 24, 2004. Dr. Klein practiced 29 years in the Indianapolis area. He was a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and received his MS degree from Indiana University. He served with distinction as Associate Professor from 1968 – 2004. For many years he served as Management Consultant for Pediatric Dentistry private practice. He served in many roles in the AAPD including Chairman of the Practice Section, as a member of the Dental Care Committee, chair of the Nomenclature Committee and Continuing Education Committee. He was the recipient of the Lord-Chaim Research Award of the New York Dental Society. Dr. Klein developed, with the assistance of Dwight McFerson, the television and electronic research laboratories at IUSD and initially developed the closed circuit television education system. He was instrumental in developing the intra-oral television micro-measure instrumentation. Until the time of his death, he continued to work with dental residents in the development of their research programs.

Dr. Dennis P. Zimmerman passed away April 2, 2004, after a prolonged illness. He completed his undergraduate education at Dennison University and Ball state University. He was a graduate of IUSD in 1973 and received his Pediatric Dentistry Certificate in 1975. He was a recipient of the Cerebral Palsy Fellowship at Riley Hospital 1996-1997. He served as the staff dentist for two years at the Knightstown Soldiers and Sailors Home. He practiced in Kokomo, Indiana, until 1996. He also taught at the Indiana University School of Dentistry before entering practice in Terre Haute. Upon his retirement he was awarded the Sagamore of the Wabash. Dr. Zimmerman was chosen by the 2001 graduating class as their guest speaker. During his post-commencement address he encouraged the graduates and gave them advice about going into private practice. Since he was speaking on Mother’s Day he remarked, “I suggest you treat all patients as if your mother was watching”. Dr. Zimmerman was active in scouting and achieved the rank of Eagle Scout.

Dr. Robert R. Buckley, Jr. passed away December 24, 2003. Dr. Buckley was an Army Veteran of World War II, a member of Lambda Chi Alpha, Masonic Blue Lodge, Scottish Rite and Murat Shine. He was also an active member of the Meridian Street United Methodist Church where he ushered for five years and sang in the choir for 25 years. He was a member of the American Dental Association and Indiana University Pediatric Dentistry Alumni Association. Dr. Buckley received a B. S. Degree from Akron University in 1949, his M.S. Degree in Education from Butler University in 1957, and his D.D.S. from the Indiana University School of Dentistry that same year. He continued his education at Indiana University School of Dentistry and received his M.S.D. in 1961. Dr. Buckley had a special interest in the oral health problems of children with Cerebral Palsy and conducted research including the electromyographic study of the obicularis oris muscle of Cerebral Palsy spastic individuals. While a part-time member of the IUSD faculty, Dr. Buckley established a dental clinic in the Rotary Building for the treatment of children and adults with Cerebral Palsy. Dr. Buckley served as President of the United Cerebral Palsy of Central Indiana from 1971-1975. He maintained a practice until shortly before his death in Broad “lived” there. For a number of years we selected the “winner(s)” name(s) in a drawing to determine who would actually occupy the adjoining room(s) to the suite. For some reason the winners did not always feel so lucky. Occasionally one or two residents would actually volunteer for the job and I always accepted volunteers on the spot! I do not have a complete list of all the residents and faculty who have occupied the suite but I know Denny Zimmerman acquired the responsibility in 1975 for the New Orleans meeting. Pete Claussen and Keith Roberts shared the suite in 1977 at Bal Harbor (although neither one remembers it). Keith Ray and Paul Yim shared it in 1981 at Philadelphia. Another resident-spouse couple, Carol Jean and Ken Braun, hosted our suite in 1986 at Colorado Springs. They were followed by Carol McKown and Janet Clark in 1987, again at New Orleans. Shortly after that our resident pool dropped to a total of only 5 people for a number of years and we tried to get suites with 2 adjoining bedrooms whenever possible, then all the residents could often be accommodated in the suite.

Although I continued to oversee arrangements for the hospitality suite until 1996, I had much assistance from Elizabeth Hatcher. Later, Pam Lovejoy, Karen Deery, and Donna Burmgardner have assisted me and others with many of the tasks involved in keeping things on track while acquiring and maintaining the suite each year. Innovation has never been one of my strengths and for 25 years I proved that by keeping the suite going from year to year but without trying anything new. As my responsibilities with the various organizations that meet at the annual AAPD meeting increased, I was finding it more difficult to consistently attend to the suite, as I would like. But I accepted it as part of my job. It never really occurred to me that someone else would want to help with the task until one day sometime after the 1995 meeting in San Francisco I received a phone call from a volunteer bubbling over with ideas and enthusiasm for the job.

Consequently, it was the Chicago Meeting in May of 1996 when the organization and activities of our hospitality suite elevated significantly in a miraculous transformation! The phone call I mentioned was from Bill Keaty. Bill and Phil Miller, our President at the time, had been discussing ideas for energizing the activities in our suite for the upcoming Chicago meeting. I remember that Bill was a little tentative early in our conversation and as it went on, I realized that he was probably concerned about hurting my feelings by implying that I could use some help. Well, I listened as he outlined several ideas he had for fun activities for the suite that I thought were great, and better yet, nearly all of the ideas offered fund-raising opportunities for the organization to offset expenses. Then the greatest idea of all came along when he volunteered to do it all! I may have surprised him a little by how quickly I accepted his offer. Now Bill doesn’t deserve all the credit because he had recruited his wife, Phyllis to help, along with our president and first lady, Phil and Laura Miller. Phil also gets some credit for asking Bill to get involved – Phil actually observed that he “was lucky enough to think” of asking Bill for help. Bill has a lot of good ideas. He also suggested our new “Adopt-A-Resident” program that has been quite successful.

Well, Bill and his crew of volunteers got us off and running in a new and productive direction by personally overseeing all the suite arrangements for 1996 and 1997. In addition to all the fund raising ideas, he imposed on Phyllis and others to prepare homemade food delicacies from various localities to add another special treat beyond the usual hotel offerings. He enlisted “celebrity” mystery bartenders who not only concocted some unusual offerings but also entertained us with their comedy routines (Chuck Poland and Keith Roberts can be really funny). You may have noticed that our newsletter now carries a full page of content or more about the activities in the suite prior to our meetings. Nowadays, the Board of Directors discusses the plans for each hospitality suite and they assume an active role in organizing and directing its activities. Brian Lee, Barry Burgess, Jenny Stigers, and Leslie Tanimura have all recently made their marks in ensuring that our members and guests are well served and entertained when we visit the suite. I hope to see you there in Orlando!

20th IAPD INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS
Offer from Gerry Wright, Secretary General

Last October in a rash moment, I suggested to Dave Avery that if 20 IUPDA A alumni were to attend the 20th IAPD Congress, I would supply a suite for one night for a reunion. That offer still holds.

Let me tell you a little about the International Association of Pediatric Dentistry (IAPD). It was formed about 40 years ago with specialists and non-specialists. IAPD is the only global organization representing pediatric dentistry with representatives from 42 nations.

International congresses are held every two years around the world. These Congresses have varied scientific programs with many interesting speakers. They also provide the opportunity to meet colleagues from around the world, exchange viewpoints and enjoy unique social experiences. (see photo)

The 20th IAPD Congress will be held October 31-November 5, 2005 in Sydney, Australia. Darling Harbor, the site for the meeting, offers a great backdrop for social events. I have been to Sydney each of the last four winters, and I can personally attest to the fact that it is one of the nicest cities to visit with so much to do. It will be spring in Sydney and the weather will be conducive to outdoor dining and sports. For more information check http://www.iapd2005.com. Finally, if you plan to go you must let Karen Deery, Donna Bumgardner, Jeff Dean or Dave Avery know by July 1 and if there are 20 registrants, I will provide the suite.

Secretary General IAPD
