Campus and City Tours

All tours depart from University Place Hotel Lobby

Choose one tour from the following.

Option A: Tour begins by riding the People Mover, which connects the IU Medical Campus to Methodist Hospital. A walking tour of the Downtown Canal will follow. Expanded in 1996, the Canal now connects Downtown visitors from the White River to the heart of White River State Park, home to the NCAA headquarters and several cultural museums.

Option B: Tour begins with an in-depth look at the new IU Melvin & Bren Simon Cancer Center, scheduled to open in the fall of 2008. We will continue this walking tour with an outdoor look at the campus' health science buildings, including the latest construction additions to Riley Hospital and the IU medical campus.

Option C: Tour begins by riding the People Mover (mentioned above) to Fairbanks Hall, home of the new 30,000 square foot high-fidelity medical simulation center set to open in the fall 2008. We will then move to a riding bus tour of Downtown Indianapolis and IUPUI. Enjoy exciting, up-close views of Lucas Oil Stadium, the Massachusetts Avenue Arts District, and the newly constructed Downtown Library without worrying about parking or traffic!
