

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Alumni Association

Medical Reunion Weekend 2009

Schedule of Events

Friday, May 15, 2009

9:00 – 11:00 a.m. Tour of the Indiana Medical History Museum

Tour departs University Place Hotel at 9 am and 10 am

The Indiana Medical History Museum is located in the Old Pathology Building on the grounds of the former Central State Hospital on the near Westside of Indianapolis. The museum represents the beginning of scientific psychiatry and modern medicine while the building itself is the oldest surviving pathology facility in the nation and is on the National Register of Historic Places.

The museum maintains a collection of scientific artifacts from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in a completely authentic setting. Constructed in 1895 and inaugurated in 1896, the nineteen-room Pathological Department Building, as it was then called, is equipped with three clinical laboratories, a photography lab, teaching amphitheatre, autopsy room, and library. More information can be found online at www.imhm.org. (Cost: $5.00 per person)

11:30 – 1:00 p.m. Opening Luncheon w/ Dr. Anantha Shekhar (CTSI) Hotel Ballroom

*Featuring Anantha Shekhar, M.D., Ph.D., Director, Indiana Clinical and Translational Sciences Institute (I-CTSI)
The IU School of Medicine is home of the Indiana I-CTSI established in collaboration with Indiana, Purdue and Notre Dame Universities and is the recipient of a five-year award from the NIH. Its mission is "to increase translational biomedical research and improve the health of the people of Indiana and beyond" by improving the way biomedical research is conducted, reducing the time it takes for laboratory discoveries to become treatments for patients. (Cost: $25 per person)

1:30 – 3:30 p.m. Campus Tour & City Tour

Campus Tour - Meets in Hotel Lobby

Participants will travel the undergraduate and medical campuses on an open air trolley on this docent led tour of campus. See the growth and changes happening to your campus and experience first-hand the exciting transformation of the IU School of Medicine. (Cost: Complimentary with registration)

City Tour – Meets in Conference Center Slate Foyer

Just as your campus has changed, so has Indianapolis. Join a docent from the Indiana Historical Society on this coach bus tour of Indianapolis. See how Indianapolis is changing to meet the times, with new additions like Conseco Field house, Lucas Oil Stadium, and the historic Downtown cultural districts. (Cost: Complimentary with registration)

Saturday, May 16, 2009

8:00 – 9:00 a.m. Dean's Breakfast Hotel Ballroom

Visit with Dean Brater and IUSM students over breakfast with comments from the Dean on scholarship and the education of our students at the Indiana University School of Medicine. (Cost: Complimentary with registration)

9:45 – 11:15 a.m. Enrichment Breakouts Various

So what's the deal with Electronic Health Records?

Presented by Felisa Tennant, M.I.S., Interim Program Director, Health Information Administration
IU School of Informatics

Have you been resisting the shift to electronic health records? This presentation will explain the historical development of the EHR, the advantages and disadvantages of the EHR vs. paper health records and the future of the EHR. (Cost: Complimentary with registration)

IUSM: a history lesson for alumni

Presented by Walter J. Daly, M.D., Dean Emeritus, IU School of Medicine

The period before the end of World War I was one of crisis after crisis. The School cruised through some and staggered through others. It was during this time that the basis of a modern School was formed, and James O. Ritchey and others were shaped as physicians. (Cost: Complimentary with registration)

The Essential Elements of any Estate Plan

Presented by Joshua Lee, J.D., IUSM Gift Development, and MaryEllen Bishop, J.D., Bose McKinney & Evans, LLP

Topics covered in this program include: Wills and trusts; Powers of Attorneys; living wills; and a brief overview of the tax system as it applies to wealth transfers. (Cost: Complimentary with registration)

11:30 – 1:30 p.m. 62nd Strawberry Shortcake Luncheon and Reception Under the Tent

Rob Forste, M.D. '71, President of the IU Medical Alumni Association, emcees this annual event featuring our famous Strawberry Shortcake and presentations of the Distinguished Alumni, Distinguished Faculty, and Early Career Achievement awards. All alumni are welcome to attend. (Cost: $30.00 per person; those attending only the luncheon need not pay registration fee for weekend events.)

2:00 – 4:00 p.m. Association Board Meeting Hotel Board Room

The biannual meeting of the Board of Directors for the Medical Alumni Association will be held during Medical Reunion Weekend. All alumni are welcome to attend. (Cost: Complimentary with registration)

